As you will most likely be aware, it is no longer necessary to report business related expenses on the forms P11D, so these will not need to be considered. Therefore expenses such as travel and subsistence, business entertaining and professional fees and subscriptions are now exempt from the forms P11D.

Any other information

If any of the above has been made by an optional remuneration arrangement, please let us know.

Other items that may belong on the P11D include:

- Gym memberships (where the gym is not within your business premises).
- Commercial childcare expenses (if joined a scheme after 4th October 2018).
- School fees settled by the employer.
- Training provided by the employer, if not relevant to the duties of employment.
